CHEESE MENU

We love cheese as much as you do. Here's our current favourites!

3 CHEESES £13.50

5 CHEESES £18

Lavosh Crackers, Fig Chutney

GORTNAMONA (v)

A pasteurised goat's cheese mould ripened cheese made on the farm of the Maher family in the heart of Co. Tipperary, using vegetarian rennet.

COOLEENEY (v)

Is a soft mould ripened pasteurised cow's milk cheese from the heart of Co. Tipperary, made by the Maher family from the herd of cows on their farm. The cheese is similar to a French Camembert. The flavour is rich with hints of oak and mushroom which increases when matured for a further 3 to 6 weeks. After maturation the paste becomes less chalky and runnier.

KNOCKANORE IRISH MATURE CHEDDAR (v)

Made using raw milk from a pedigree herd of Friesian cows that graze on the lush rolling hills of the Co. Waterford countryside. This cheese is made using traditional cheddaring techniques which involve stacking the cheese curds on top of one another to produce a firm but slightly open textured cheese. Matured for six months, this vintage white cheddar is mild with subtle sweet and creamy tones, but with enough of a tang to satisfy real cheese lover.

YOUNG BUCK

A mellow blue cheese, made with raw milk. The complex nature of raw milk gives the cheese a "long" taste. With the sensation of white chocolate it will coat the tongue giving an array of flavours, from the piquant spicy blue flavour, when you get a bite of the blue, to the nutty/buttery flavours towards the rind.

CARRIGALINE (v)

Carrigaline Farmhouse Cheese is handmade in the traditional way by Ann & Pat O'Farrell at the Rock, Carrigaline. Carrigaline Farmhouse. The milk which is produced from Friesian Cows is pasteurised. The cheese is semi soft to a firm and flexible texture with round or oval gas holes. It has a mild flavour becoming piquant with age.
